

Mr. David Wise
Bureau Chief
NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE
1285 National Press Building
Washington 4, D. C.

Dear David,

Congratulations on your new post. The HERALD TRIBUNE Washington bureau is still in good hands. My best wishes to you and to Tom Ross. I am pleased to know that you are a worthy successor to my old friend, Bob Donovan.

I commend to you Paul Chretien, my successor at CIA, and on this, my first day of public appearance since last August, I have told him of our friendship, of our cooperation and of your patriotism and reliability. I am sure you will find him as helpful as he can possibly be.

Sincerely,

Stanley J. Grogan
